Hundreds Gather For 45th Ordination Anniversary Celebration.

MASS HELD FOR CHILDREN

Exception to Distinguished Guests This Afternoon, Vesper Service and Then Big Event of the Occasion, Banquet at 8 O'clock, Main Features

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, July 19.—Celebration of the 45th anniversary of the ordination of Rev. Father M. A. Lamming of St. John's Roman Catholic church, Scottdale, to the priesthood and the 42nd anniversary of his pastorate here, was ushered in by a children's mass at 8 o'clock this morning attended by 340 children of the parish. Father Lamming conducted the mass, following this spoke briefly to the children, congratulating them on their start in life along the paths of right and expressing the hope that they will live to become useful men and women in the community.

Following the address the children were taken to the school hall where lunch of ice cream and cake was served and where each was presented with a souvenir of the occasion in the form of a folder, the front of which bore a photograph of Father Lamming and in which was published a history of the pastorate and the story of the anniversary. The children were in charge of Miss Maude Kittell and Miss Regula Nash, assisted by 20 girls.

The chief event of the anniversary observance will be the banquet this evening at 8 o'clock in the school hall, at which 300 to 400 persons are expected, included being many former parishioners, now scattered to many places in this and other states. The banquet will be preceded by benediction at the church.

This afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock was set aside on the program for a reception of distinguished visitors.

"LUCKY" BOUSMAN AND WIFE TO MAKE LONG RIVER TRIP

Leave Here in Home-made Boat on Journey to Mouth of the Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Bousman of South Connellsville left this afternoon for a river trip to Milwaukee, La., in a home-made boat.

Bousman, better known as "Lucky," who was an employee of the Captain Glass company for over 10 years, has been employed in every state in the Union.

Many friends were down along the river this morning to see him off, but owing to a delay he didn't get away till this afternoon.

Mr. Bousman built the boat in which he intends to go down to Pittsburgh.

It is built on the order of a flatboat, about 15 feet long and about five feet wide. He has built sides around it and put a top on to protect the occupants from the weather. Bousman says that he is going to have "lots of fun getting down to Pittsburgh."

When Bousman gets to Pittsburgh he expects to buy a gasoline launch and then tow the flatboat down the Ohio river to Cairo, Ill., where he will trade both of them for a houseboat in which he will finish his trip down the Mississippi river. Bousman has had four years experience on this river and is quite familiar with a trip of this nature. He says that his wife is even better on the river than he is.

If he can't buy a gas boat in Pittsburgh, Bousman expects to get to his destination in three or four weeks and if he can't get a boat it will take about two months. He will get there somehow. If his boat breaks down he will build another one, he said. It is about 2,800 miles to his destination.

Bousman has a government job, running channel lights waiting for him there. His partner is running it for him at the present.

Motorman Not Losing Any Time.

"I don't think anyone ever suffered more from stomach trouble and bleeding than I have. I had to lay off of my job more than half the time and could get no help from prescriptions or medicine. One of my friends advised using May's Wonderful Remedy, which I found to be the greatest remedy ever, put on the earth. I have not lost a day since taking it. It is simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and relieves the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince you of its money refund. Sold by A. C. Clarke and druggists everywhere—Advertisement.

What Makes a Good School Teacher, Asks Boards of Education

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—What makes a good public school teacher—a college degree, years of service, natural ability or summer courses?

This question has been raised for discussion among educators here by the new salary schedule with its requirements for promotion, presented to the Board of Education for approval.

Promotion of elementary teachers in superior rating under the new schedule is to be either by twelve units of college work obtained in course or demonstration of superior interests and attainments or by passing an examination given under the direction of the superintendent of schools.

"Courses in 'college' or 'normal school' may or may not be an evidence of increased efficiency," says Bruce M. Watson, secretary of the Public Education and Child Labor Association of Pennsylvania, in a reprint of an article published in the American School Board Journal.

"If college courses and extra study are taken voluntarily without direct financial appeal, they are suggestive of professional spirit and progressive ness.

"As a requirement of the school board as a condition precedent to advancement on the salary schedule, they are entitled to but little weight.

They have nothing more tangible than a human desire to obtain more money.

"They may be among the many possible instruments of professional growth, but before being so designed, and paid for in cold cash, they should be shown in every case to have functioned in the teacher's better service to the school."

UNIQUE JAPANESE MASK AS TELEPHONE COVERING

Mrs. E. W. Browning, wife of New York's real estate king, boasts a unique telephone covering. Quite in keeping with a beautiful oriental room in the Browning home is a mask symbolic of a Japanese wind god, which conceals the telephone. The picture shows Mrs. Browning using the telephone.

INDIANS SELLING DEER

Fashion for Bridle Leggings Among Them: the "Causas."

The time-honored fashion of buckskin leggings for Yankoma Indian girls has reduced the number of deer in the Cascade mountains in alarming proportions.

This is the warning statement given out by State Game Warden, C. W. Darwin of Washington.

According to tradition it requires three deer skins to make the proper kind of leggings for a bridle of the tribe who is about to wed.

Darwin has investigated and found that there are now an average of 100 weddings each year in the Yankoma tribe. In and out of season deer have dwindled rapidly in that part of the state where Yankoma Indians range and hunt.

It is reported that when deer cannot be found on the reservation, the Indians have some method of going into the surrounding deer country and driving them back to their own lands.

The state game warden intends to enter into a conference with the big chief in order to induce the Indians to change their custom from deer skin to shark skins or cloth.

The custom of the Yankoma Indians is one followed by other Pacific Coast tribes. The bride is supposed to wear the wedding leggings until they are worn out. To wear them a long time is an omen of happiness and prosperity.

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a cold trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist, a wife to a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had a cold since to take it again. I have six room flat to call my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my name to any one who wants a personal physician." Mrs. E. H. Haydock, 24 years old, of Chicago, Illinois, whose Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved Mrs. Haydock from operation can not claim that operations may be avoided by it, as many women have escaped operations by the use of this old fashioned home medicine.

THE SOISSON.

"HUSH," the feature attraction today, affords splendid opportunities for Clara Kimball Young, who is seen in the stellar role. The story is one of the most absorbing in recent months and is enthralling throughout. Miss Young is supported by a capable cast. Tomorrow and Thursday, Violet Mercereau will be seen in "Finders Keepers," one of the season's screen successes. Miss Mercereau, the dainty star, plays the part of Amy Land, a poor girl who has a beautiful voice, and who secures work as a concert singer in an expensive cabaret. In the cabaret scene she comes on and sings a ballad, which is followed by a dance revue, which presented some of the most daring dances ever put on by a revue.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"LIVE AND LET LIVE," William Christ Cabanne's drama of the hour being shown today as the feature attraction. Well known screen players appear in the leading roles and the picture is of real entertainment worth. A two reel comedy is also selected. Tomorrow and Thursday, "The Great Frost," will be shown.

THE ORPHEUM.

"AN OLD-FASHIONED BOY," in which Charles Ray, the popular star, is seen at his best, is the feature attraction today. "An Old-Fashioned Boy," is David Warrington in that he had ideals of marriage closely related to home life and children. He prepares a pretty home before proposing to Betty Graves, fitting it up in secret with Sybil, their mutual friend and the wife of Herbert. After winning Betty's consent, David takes her to inspect the home, but she suspects that he has dared to make it ready before gaining her consent. Her pride is hurt. She says it is pretty, but she would not care to live in such a place. He is left there, the picture of despair, while she looks away with an unsuccessful suitor. Tomorrow Bryant Washburn will be seen in "An Amateur Devil."

GIRLS! LEMONS
WHITEN THE SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of hair-removal lotion. Add a few drops of Muriatic acid, evenly strain lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Family stages, buy this lotion, lotion, lotion, brush and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate. Ad.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarette aftertaste;

It's Camels for you.

COKERS HAVE STRONG MAN IN THEIR PITCHER, CLUB ONLY NEEDS MORE SUPPORT

HAUSER HAS HAD VARIED BALL CAREER

All baseball fans have heard of the "Evers", Johnny Evers, rated as one of the greatest players. The Connellsville Independents have without a doubt the "Evers" of local baseball players in the person of John "Rabbit" Hauser, their sterling pitcher. Hauser is one of the brainiest strategists who ever wore a Connellsville uniform.

Two days before Christmas in the year 1888, little John B. Hauser made his debut in the great league of Etna. He began pitching ball at the age of 14 years on the lots of Etna with the Willow team of which Bill Sauer was captain and Tommy Dunn, manager. After two years pitching at the age of 16, he received an offer from E. Liverpool, in the O. & P. League, but declined with thanks. That year he pitched five innings against the Pittsburg Nationals who scored just three runs of the youth prodigy.

The next year he played on Ed. Hickey's famous Millvale team and from there was recommended to Jacksonville, Fla., in the South Atlantic League by Whitey Alperman, then a member of the Dodgers. He joined that club and pitched an exhibition game against the Brooklyn Nationals. He had them beat up to the eighth inning when Whitey Alperman hit out a two-bagger with three on and he lost 4 to 3. After six weeks with Jacksonville, he was farmed out to Rock Hill in the South Carolina State League. "Rabbit" failed to make an impression with the management of the club, losing four of the first six games pitched and was presented with his release.

He was picked up by the tall and stout Orangeburg, and soon started to climb upward again, winning four and losing one. He was then sold to Sumpter, the "leading team" in the same league, winning three games in one week, which decided the pennant.

His record for that first year in fast company was also won four lost, one tied. In 1909 the league disbanded and Hauser finished the season at Atlantic City.

He had a successful season but returned to Ambridge broke. In 1910 he joined with Lee Pohl at Akron in the L. & P. League, with whom he played until the Fourth of July, when on account of having too many pitchers on the club, he was sent to Greensboro in the North Carolina League and he continued with that team until 1912. In the spring of 1911-12, "Rabbit" coached at St. Mary's College, Belmont, North Carolina. At the close of the Carolina League he pitched and captained the High Point Club in the North Carolina Independent League, Meadows, now with the Philadelphia Nationals, was also twirling in the same league.

At the close of the 1912 season Hauser returned to his home in Etna and then went with Paddy Carr's American Bridge team. For three seasons he was captain of the team and it was greatly due to his leadership that the team was always at the top during his regime.

He went to Ambridge just in time to catch up with the players of the team.

He joined into the players of the team, the value of team work and inside baseball, and to transform a fairly good club into a championship affiliate.

A team that surprised its local supporters by defeating Gary, Lassig, and the American plant in three straight games in the vicinity of Chicago and bringing to Ambridge the championship of the American Bridge company. It was by no means any lack of ability or fault of Hauser's that the honor was lost last year.

Hauser has played with Rochester, Koppel, Irwin and others. For the past three years he has been the captain of the Hornicks of Ambridge. He is one of the biggest figures in Ambridge baseball circles, having done a great deal towards fostering local interests. Such is the pitcher upon whom the Independents will depend to win the series in the Fayette-Westmoreland league race.

SPECIAL CAR TO BALL GAME WEDNESDAY PLANNED

WITH the view of giving local fans an opportunity of seeing the conflict between "Whiting" and the Connellsville Independents at Latrobe Wednesday afternoon, in what may be termed a bargain price which will include their transportation and a ticket for the game, arrangements have been completed for a special car to leave the West Penn station at 3 o'clock. The total cost will amount to 42.

This will save the fans 35 cents apiece. Should enough make reservations for the trip, the cost will be still smaller. Those who desire to go on the special should leave their names with Shultz Hauser, Ralph Hyatt's cigar store; John Madison, at the Royal Billiard parlor; and Tony Resende, at the Liberty Billiard parlor.

Each fan is also requested to pay the sum of 35 when making reservations. Should not enough persons purchase reservations, the money deposited will be refunded immediately, but every indication points to capacity audience.

In a Church league game last night the United Presbyterian team defeated the Methodist Protestant outfit, 4-3. The teams played giggling ball in the field. Each aggregation got seven hits.

*****

The Professionals and Invincibles, the two horseshoe teams of the W. A. Eddie Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will pitch on the South Side tonight and finish the tournament at the picnic on Wednesday. At present the invincibles are leading and it will be necessary for the Professionals which team claims the best pitchers, to win 24 games to tie up. Last night the Invincibles won, 26 to 24 games.

*****

The Fayette Baking company defeated the Davidson first nine last evening, 6-3. The Bakers had arranged a game with the Narrows team but all the players for that aggregation did not show up and Davidson filed in.

*****

The Poplar Grove Kishdaires defeated the Redhook Tigers on the latter team's grounds last evening, 6-5.

At the same time the Poplar Grove Maids whitewashed the second nine by a score of 14-0. The Kishdaires play the Fayette Baking company at Poplar Grove Wednesday.

Ralph Sliger, Methodist Episcopal star third baseman, is out of the game for a time because of a slight injury to his right hand. And it's possible it may interfere with his pinch-hitting for the all-star church team, to which position he was named just right.

Fashion's Fancies

HATS OF THE HOUR

Partisans Are Devoted to the Cloche Shapes.

At the fashionable race meetings and in all the smartest restaurants, said a Paris fashion writer, one recognises that a war of hats is in full swing. Quite early in the spring season 1920—who has great influence in the feminine world—announced the speedy arrival of very large picture hats with wide, flat brims and rather bats.

And side by side with these models he showed at Monte Carlo and Biarritz—cavalier hats of remarkable outline, the bow or hat that Cecile Sorel has always worn.

Now it happens that the more eccentric Partisans have become devoted to cloche shapes—large and small. In fact, so devoted are they to these changing styles that nothing can induce them to look seriously at other models. The favorite hat of the hour remains the cloche—large or small.

At the races one sees enormous picture hats worn by very pretty women, but there are almost always mambettes who have been paid to show some particular style. It is a rare thing to see a real Partisan elegante wearing a remarkably wide-brimmed hat. We shall watch this little military war with interest.

At least two of the most influential milliners in Paris are determined to make big hat-brimmed picture hats popular, but no one can say, decidedly, that this effort will be really successful.

HOW HATS MAY BE RENEWED

This stunning wrap and neckpiece in violet and angora wool makes a charming outfit for summer wear.

Ironing and Bleaching Simple Matter Which May Be Easily Accomplished at Home.

A hat which becomes limp with dampness may be restored by pressing it with a warm iron over a damp cloth. A white straw or leghorn hat, written a correspondent, may be bleached by washing with soap and lukewarm water after which it should be well brushed with oxalic acid solution or paste of lemon juice and sulphur. If the oxalic acid forms bubbles when poured on a clean white pine board, it is too strong for use and should be diluted. If the straw is brittle and soap and water cannot be used on it, it should be well brushed before using the oxalic acid and rinsed with clear water afterwards. The hat may be dried by covering it with a cloth and pressing with a warm iron or placing it in the sun.

Black straw hats may be cleaned with a piece of velvet which has been dipped in gasoline. If it is still not black enough after this process is finished it may be dyed with commercial dyes. Colored straw hats may be cleaned and colored in the same way. Most commercial dyes come in dark shades and may be diluted by the use of a neutral liquid. A straw hat may be reshaped by dampening the brim and bending it to the shape desired.

Painted flowers which are soiled should be cleaned first by shaking them in gasoline, after which water colors and oil paints mixed with gasoline may be used to tint them. If the whole flower is to be colored it may be dipped in the bowl of coloring, after which the center may be painted a darker shade with a camel's hair brush. The edges of the petals may be tinted by dipping them in a bowl of less dilute coloring matter. The flowers may be dried by placing a weight on the stems and allowing them to hang from the edge of a table or shelf. The appearance of the flowers is improved by trimming off all frayed edges.

Seashells are forming the trains of some of the newest dresses which are now shown in every important exhibition of models.

At any rate it is safe to say that modish cloche shapes will remain fashionable all through the summer months and well into the autumn.

SOME FRILLS OF FASHION

Embroidered show an oriental influence.

Velvet tassels are smartly trimmed with latticed ribbon.

The newest fashions are of dyed coque feathers mounted in tortoise shell.

A spiky little vase of white linen embroidered with black silk livens up the dark tailleur.

The smart shops are showing all-black underwear. Even milady's night robe is nothing of clinging black lines and lace.

Several smart hats have a high brim trimming which simulates Spanish combes. These often are made of lace or plaited malines.

Sashes are forming the trains of some of the new gowns. A wide swath of ribbon, which winds around the figure and trails on the floor in lengths often finished with deep fringe.

Some of the newest undergarments are golden as to color and made of soft satin. Others are almost the peacock which our grandmothers did—squares of handsome silk, put together fantastically.

As the season progresses one will see the gay hats decked with cherries, which are now being worn uncovered, draped with black lace which in many cases will reach to the elbow. The lace invariably is very soft.

EYELASHES THAT PASTE ON

Artificial Decoration Proves Innovation at Hair Dressing Association Exhibition.

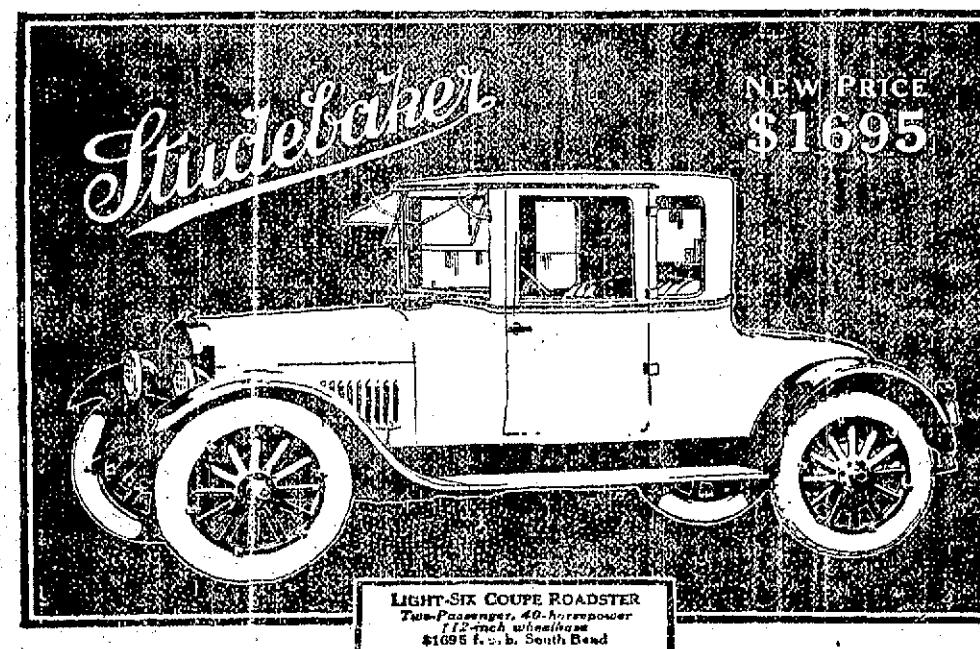

Ladies' eyelashes have become saleable articles. The dressing table in milady's boudoir may now be adorned, in addition to numerous other things that admirers assume to be natural, with artificial lashes that paste on right over the regular ones.

This innovation in feminine attractiveness was on display in New York recently at the American Ladies' Hair Dressing Association exhibition.

Other nature savers included a half bobbed wig to cover old-fashioned long hair, thus relieving the necessity of cutting it. A portable in moving picture fern was shown demonstrating how a wife who had lost her husband's affection, regained it by remaking her rose-petaled cheeks.

Gloves Wear. Your otherwise good gloves have worn through at the finger tips, turn a simple cut and stitch around the edge of them. Then pull them together and they will have the finish of new gloves.

Buttons and Collars. Buttons have round collars bound with ribbon, which are edged with lace.

LIGHT in weight and smart in appearance, the LIGHT-SIX Coupe Roadster is the ideal car for physicians, salesmen and others who want a sturdy, dependable, economical two-passenger car of the enclosed type. Its wonderful value, at the new low price of $1695, is due to its complete manufacture by Studebaker in the newest and most modern automobile plant in the world.
